

MOMMY MINISTERS

A RETREAT OF SUPPORT

MONDAY, MAY 3, 2010

9:30AM-3:30PM

RETREAT LEADER:
DEBORA JACKSON

This program is designed as a day away for women pastors and ministers who are also mothers. During this gathering, participants will share the experiences of balancing the demands of the ministry with motherhood and family life, along with the associated challenges that accompany that balance. After a time of worship and prayer, the retreat leader will facilitate conversations on the challenges of balancing the ministry and family life, caring for self and story sharing. Participants will also have an opportunity to engage in guided meditations and spiritual practices for relaxation and renewal. In addition, by gathering, participants will additionally be able to build a network of collegial support that is both renewing and sustaining.

Rev. Debora Jackson

The Rev. Debora Jackson, Senior Pastor of the First Baptist Church in Needham, will be the retreat leader. She is a pastor whose focus is on church growth and renewal. She is additionally an independent consultant specializing in organizational design, strategic planning and leadership development. Rev. Jackson is also the mother of a six year old son.
